CRAMER ROSENTHAL MCGLYNN HIRES MILU KOMER AS SENIOR PORTFOLIO MANAGER FOR INTERNATIONAL AND GLOBAL STRATEGIES

New York, November 6, 2008 - Cramer Rosenthal McGlynn (“CRM”) is pleased to announce that Milu Komer has joined the firm as a Senior Portfolio Manager. Ms. Komer will establish international and global investment strategies for CRM. The new strategies will be focused across the market capitalization spectrum. Ms. Komer will build a dedicated investment team focused on international equities and will leverage CRM’s existing research team for the U.S. equity portion of the global strategy.

“As a firm that has a history of investing globally, we are excited to offer a dedicated strategy to our clients,” stated Ronald H. McGlynn, Chairman of CRM. “We believe that it is advantageous to our domestic strategies to bring a fundamentally focused global capability to our investment process. We believe equity investing will be increasingly viewed from a global perspective and we are fortunate to have someone of Milu’s stature and experience to lead this exciting and timely effort for us,” he added.

Ms. Komer was most recently with investment manager Neuberger Berman, where she was a co-Portfolio Manager on the international equity team. Prior to that, Ms. Komer served as an associate in the J.P. Morgan Securities Debt Capital Markets Group and as a Foreign Exchange Trader in the Emerging Markets Group at Citibank. Ms. Komer began her career as a Financial Analyst in the International Equity Research and Asset Management Divisions of Goldman Sachs’ London office. “I look forward to the opportunity to launch a series of new global and international product initiatives with a firm that has demonstrated long standing dedication to investment research and client service,” said Ms. Komer.
